

Rachel's Challenge – Celebration of Service and Kindness 11/11/11

Dear Parents:

Our students have been adding to the chain in their classrooms by performing small acts of kindness. In celebration with 11 Alive News and other sponsors, we invite you, and all military veterans, along with students and family members to join us at the Georgia Dome on 11/11/11 for Rachel's Challenge - Add To The Chain: Celebration of Service and Kindness.

This event is taking place on Veterans Day to honor the ultimate act of Service by those who have served in the military. At the same time, we will celebrate Kindness as exemplified by Rachel's Challenge. If you are interested in bringing your student to the Georgia Dome for this event, plan to carpool with other parents/students for convenience with parking. Your student will have an excused absence, if he/she is in attendance of this celebration. Please notify your child's homeroom teacher by November 7th if your child will not be in school on the day of this event. If the homeroom teacher is not notified, the absence is not excused.

The information below outlines details for the day as follows:

- A few members of Queen of Angels Catholic School staff will be present with all the combined chain links. As soon as a meeting place is determined at the Dome, you will be notified.
- Plan to arrive at the Georgia Dome on 11/11/11 between 9:00 am and 9:30 am. The televised program will begin promptly at 10:00 am and end at 12 noon.
- Please be aware NO backpacks or bags are allowed in the Georgia Dome due to security reasons.
- Student should dress in winter school uniform (no ties for boys). This will help identify our students and keep us together.
- There will be a concession available at the Dome, should you choose to purchase food/drink.

Thank you for your cooperation and participation in what promises to be a memorable occasion. We look forward to seeing you on 11/11/11!
